DO YOU BEAT ?

For IOKOI, home is nowHere between Switzerland and Italy. With the hEARt wide open to catch the very essence of each impulse, weave thoughts into soundscapes dense/airtight and enchanting. At times alone, at times accompanied, but always in play somewhere in between space and intimacy, organics and electronics, pulse and breath, view and sound (eye/ear).

2012 run deep and wild with different projects including a Soundtrack for YOHJI YAMAMOTO, a 4-weeks-tour through China doing music on Sci-Fi-Silent-Movies with swiss IOIC, the video for upcoming fashion-label MIRYAKI FW2013 and one first 7"-Vinyl-Single with the italian musician THELICIOUS for "We Are Torino".

In january 2013, IOKOI composed music&sounddesign for the transdisciplinary theathre-project "Thank You For The Lovely Flowers" in co-work with producer Laura Kaehr and choreographer Jochen Heckmann. Finally this april 2013 the first solo release "Growing Young" will come out on vinyl on your favourite independent label, Hula Honeys.
